

NATIONAL CHURCHES TRUST – KEEPING CHURCHES, CHAPELS AND MEETING HOUSES ALIVE

The National Churches Trust is delighted to support St Saviour's Church Redbrook with a grant towards the external re-render, repointing and renewal of flashing at the nave and gable end and the inspection of cross finials and other high level masonry the Church.

The National Churches Trust (founded in 1953 as the Historic Churches Preservation Trust) is the national charity supporting church buildings of historic, architectural, and community value that are open for worship.

We receive no financial support from government or church authorities and rely on the support of people like you to carry out our work.

Thanks to the generosity of our Friends and supporters we have provided over twelve thousand grants and loans and ensured that churches, chapels and meeting houses throughout the UK have remained open and in good repair and with modern facilities to ensure that they can serve the needs of local communities.

One way you can support us today is by becoming a Friend of the National Churches Trust. Friends receive invitations to our events, including church tours; a subscription to our bi-annual Friends Newsletter and regular Friends E-newsletters; a complimentary copy of our Annual Review and a range of offers including discounted home insurance.

New Friends receive a free copy of English Parish Churches and Chapels: Art, Architecture and People, by Dr Matthew Byrne, a beautiful and inspiring book of photographic portraits.

Other ways you can support us include:

- Making a one off donation via our website.
- Consider remembering us in your will,
- If you use Facebook or Twitter please 'like' or 'follow' the Trust. Our Twitter address is @NatChurchTrust and you can find us on Facebook by searching for National Churches Trust
